hitherto we have spoken only of the mystic path and we have kept particularly to the practical exoteric side of it such difficulties as we have mentioned have been purely natural obstacles for example the great question of the surrender of the self which bulks so largely in most mystical treatises has not been referred to at all we have said only what a man must do we have not considered at all what that doing may involve the rebellion of the will against the terrible discipline of meditation has not been discussed one may now devote a few words to it the symbolism of the cross is a major doctrinal study of the central symbol of christianity from the standpoint of the universal metaphysical tradition the perennial philosophy as it is called in the west as guernon points out the cross is one of the most universal of all symbols and is far from belonging to christianity alone indeed christians have sometimes tended to lose sight of its symbolism of its symbolical significance and to regard it as no more than the sign of a historical event by restoring to the full spiritual value as a symbol but without in any way detracting from its historical importance for christianity guenon has performed a task of inestimable importance which perhaps only he with his unrivaled knowledge of the symbolic languages of both east and west was qualified to perform
