Ethics of Contemporary Art 2020-11-26

what happens when the shock of artistic transgression wears off when scandal dissipates when outrage becomes a tired routine in this original new book theo reeves evison argues that transgressive art no longer succeeds on its own terms in societies where language prohibition and morality have become increasingly malleable this compels us to rethink the relationship between contemporary art and ethics and focus our attention on the potential of artworks to propose new values rather than simply challenge pre existing moral codes assembling a novel theoretical framework from the writings of félix guattari jacques lacan and others ethics of contemporary art narrates a journey away from transgression towards a new critical paradigm for the relationship between ethics and aesthetics that places questions of subjectivity centre stage along the way artworks by kader attia artur zmijewski dora garcia and others serve as springboards launching discussions of the varied pathways along which a renewed ethics of contemporary art might develop

Christian Ethics and Contemporary Moral Problems 1999-09-28

this book addresses such key ethical issues as euthanasia the environment biotechnology abortion the family sexual ethics and the distribution of health care resources michael banner argues that the task of christian ethics is to understand the world and humankind in the light of the credal affirmations of the christian faith and to explicate this understanding in its significance for human action through a critical engagement with the concerns claims and problems of other ethics he illustrates both the distinctiveness of christian convictions in relation to the above issues and also the critical dialogue with practices based on other convictions which this sense of distinctiveness motivates but does not prevent the book s importance lies in its attempt to show the crucial difference which christian belief makes to an understanding of these issues whilst at the same time demonstrating some of the weaknesses and confusions of certain popular approaches to them

Ethics 2007
