robert thurman is a living treasure one of today s most provocative spiritual thinkers daniel goleman author of emotional intelligence robert thurman the preeminent scholar and interpreter of tibetan buddhist philosophy for the modern world leads us on a joyful exploration into the nature of reality through buddha s threefold curriculum of super education buddha had to be an educator rather than a prophet or religion founder since he had achieved his goal of exact and complete understanding of reality by using reason experiments to open his own mind and vision to do so thurman writes from his own experience he could help others as a teacher by streamlining the process he could not just transplant his realization into their minds they could not get their own realizations just by believing whatever he said he could only provide them with a prospect of full realization along a path of learning and experiencing they could follow they would have to travel on their own this book is your invitation to travel that same road deeply felt and bracingly direct it doesn t teach about the teaching it is the teaching get ready to get real and have fun along the way as you chart a path to reliable lasting happiness

Anger

heated words cool malice deadly feuds the furious rush of adrenaline anger is clearly the most destructive of the seven deadly sins it can ruin families wreck one s health destroy peace of mind and at its worst lead to murder genocide and war in anger robert a f thurman best selling author and one of america s leading authorities on buddhism and eastern philosophy offers an illuminating look at this deadliest of sins in the west thurman points out anger is seen as an inevitable part of life an evil to be borne not overcome there is the tradition of the wrathful god of jesus driving the money changers from the temple if god can be angry how can men rid themselves of this destructive emotion thurman shows that eastern philosophy sees anger differently certainly it is a dreadful evil one of the three poisons that underlie all human suffering but buddhism teaches that anger can be overcome indeed the defeat of anger is not only possible but also the only thing worth doing in a lifetime thurman shows how to recognize the destructiveness of anger and understand its workings and how we can go from being a slave to anger to becoming a knight of patience we discover finally that when this deadliest emotion is transmuted by wisdom it can become the most powerful force in freeing us from human suffering drawing on the time tested wisdom of buddhism robert a f thurman ranges from the individual struggle with anger to global crises spurred by dogmatic ideologies religious fanaticism and racial prejudice he offers a path of calm understanding in a time of terrorism and war

Living, Dreaming, Dying

the tibetan book of the dead is one of the best known tibetan buddhist texts it is also one of the most difficult texts for westerners to understand in living dreaming dying rob nairn presents the first interpretation of this classic text using a modern western perspective avoiding arcane religious terminology keeping his explanations grounded in everyday language nairn explores the concepts used in this highly revered work and brings out their meaning and significance for our daily life he shows readers how the tibetan book of the dead can help us understand life and self as well as the dying process living dreaming dying helps readers to live deliberately and confront death deliberately one thing that prevents us from doing that according to nairn is our tendency to react fearfully whenever change occurs but if we confront our fear of change and the unknown we can learn to flow gracefully with the unfolding circumstances of life rather than be at their mercy of course change occurs throughout our life but a period of transition also occurs as we pass from the waking state into sleep and likewise as we pass into death therefore the author s teachings apply equally to living as well as to dreaming and dying through meditation instructions and practical exercises the author explains how to explore the mind through the cultivation of deep meditation states and expanded consciousness develop awareness of negative tendencies use deep sleep states and lucid dreaming to increase self understanding as well as to train oneself in how to die so that one is prepared for when the time comes confront and liberate oneself from fear of death and the unknown
