carol milford grows up in a mid sized town in minnesota before moving to chicago for college after her education during which she s exposed to big city life and culture she moves to minneapolis to work as a librarian she soon meets will kennicott a small town doctor and the two get married and move to gopher prairie kennicott s home town carol inspired by big city ideas soon begins chafing at the seeming quaintness and even backwardness of the townsfolk and their conservative self satisfied way of life she struggles to try to reform the town in her image while finding meaning in the seeming cultural desert she s found herself in and in her increasingly cold marriage gopher prairie is a detailed satirical take on small town american life modeled after sauk centre the town in which lewis himself grew up the town is fully realized with generations of inhabitants interacting in a complex web of village society its biting satirical portrayal made main street highly acclaimed by its contemporaries though many thought the satirical take was perhaps a bit too dark and hopeless the book s celebration and condemnation of small town life make it a candidate for the title of the great american novel main street was awarded the 1921 pulitzer prize but the decision was overturned by the prize s board of trustees and awarded instead to edith wharton for the age of innocence when lewis went on to win the 1926 pulitzer for arrowsmith he declined it with the new york times reporting that he did so because he was still angry at the pulitzers for being denied the prize for main street despite the book s snub at the pulitzers lewis went on to win the nobel prize in literature in 1930 with main street being cited as one of the reasons for his win

The Black Arrow

it was near six in the may morning when dick began to ride down into the fen upon his homeward way the sky was all blue the jolly wind blew loud and steady the windmill sails were spinning and the willows over all the fen rippling and whitening like a field of corn he had been all night in the saddle but his heart was good and his body sound and he rode right merrily the path went down and down into the marsh till he lost sight of all the neighbouring landmarks but kettley windmill on the knoll behind him and the extreme top of tunstall forest far before on either hand there were great fields of blowing reeds and willows pools of water shaking in the wind and treacherous bogs as green as emerald to tempt and to betray the traveller the path lay almost straight through the morass it was already very ancient its foundation had been laid by roman soldiery in the lapse of ages much of it had sunk and every here and there for a few hundred yards it lay submerged below the stagnant waters of the fen about a mile from kettley dick came to one such break in the plain line of causeway where the reeds and willows grew dispersedly like little islands and confused the eye the gap besides was more than usually long it was a place where any stranger might come readily to mischief and dick bethought him with something like a pang of the lad whom he had so imperfectly directed as for himself one look backward to where the windmill sails were turning black against the blue of heaven one look forward to the high ground of tunstall forest and he was sufficiently directed and held straight on the water washing to his horse s knees as safe as on a highway
