House of Leaves 2000-03-07 a novelistic mosaic that simultaneously reads like a thriller and like a strange dreamlike excursion into the subconscious the new york times years ago when house of leaves was first being passed around it was nothing more than a badly bundled heap of paper parts of which would occasionally surface on the internet no one could have anticipated the small but devoted following this terrifying story would soon command starting with an odd assortment of marginalized youth musicians tattoo artists programmers strippers environmentalists and adrenaline junkies the book eventually made its way into the hands of older generations who not only found themselves in those strangely arranged pages but also discovered a way back into the lives of their estranged children now this astonishing novel is made available in book form complete with the original colored words vertical footnotes and second and third appendices the story remains unchanged focusing on a young family that moves into a small home on ash tree lane where they discover something is terribly wrong their house is bigger on the inside than it is on the outside of course neither pulitzer prize winning photojournalist will navidson nor his companion karen green was prepared to face the consequences of that impossibility until the day their two little children wandered off and their voices eerily began to return another story of creature darkness of an ever growing abyss behind a closet door and of that unholy growl which soon enough would tear through their walls and consume all their dreams

Help Me, I'm Buying a House 2019-05-29 an essential and fun read about buying your own home from first time buyers for first time buyers illustrated throughout by well known creative artist ben jones to make you smile how to get thousands of pounds for free towards your purchase work out a feasible financial scenario early research your property and be a step ahead be best prepared for viewing and offering understand and manage the conveyancing process step by step learn from others almost two years ago me and my partner had this brilliant idea let s buy our own home we were fed up with renting and thought we got this a few months and we are sorted little did we know when we embarked on the adventure first thing we realised was that we didn t actually have a clue what we were doing falling for the tricks of the trade at almost every step of the journey we relied on online material and a few books explaining why you should buy but not really how we tumbled through the process from step to step without being properly prepared for what was supposed to happen next and what was realistic we had to let one house go after its survey revealed lots of issues that we could have spotted then spent more than half a year trying to find another one and finally wound up in a chain that caused an additional 6 month delay thankfully we are both scientists in our best bid to get on top of everything we started to do uncountable hours of research calculations reading up and talking to relevant people agents surveyors mortgage brokers other first time buyers while we were suffering through the conveyancing process i finally realised that i increasingly needed a therapeutic outlet this is how this book was born a catharsis a plea that no matter what something good must come out of this i thought if nothing else let s pass on everything that we have learned to make this a little easier for someone else because no one deserves the unnecessary chaos stress and financial losses that come with buying your own home this book is our compiled wisdom to make the home buying process more transparent we hope it will help you plan make informed choices be better in control of the process and most importantly know what is coming and what to expect the purpose of this book is for you to be prepared and less at the mercy of the system contents chapter 1 what you should consider right now chapter 2 constraints chapter 3 basic ingredients chapter 4 finding a home chapter 5 getting stuff ready for an offer chapter 6 viewing and offering chapter 7 offer accepted preparing the next steps chapter 8 conveyancing from start to finish chapter 9 moving in the first steps chapter 10 you are not alone stories from others appendix 1 glossary appendix 2 your own calculations and wishlists appendix 3 conveyancing log book

21: Bringing Down the House 2012-02-29 a powerful examination of soulful journeys made to recover memory and recuperate stolen pasts in the face of unspeakable histories survivors of the armenian genocide of 1915 took refuge across the globe traumatized by unspeakable brutalities the idea of returning to their homeland was unthinkable but decades later some children and grandchildren felt compelled to travel back having heard stories of family wholeness in beloved homes and of cherished ancestral towns and villages once in ottoman armenia today in the republic of turkey hoping to satisfy spiritual yearnings this new generation called themselves pilgrims and their journeys pilgrimages carel bertram joined scores of these pilgrims on over a dozen pilgrimages and amassed accounts from hundreds more who made these journeys in telling their stories a house in the homeland documents how pilgrims encountered the ancestral house village or town as both real and metaphorical centerpieces of family history bertram recounts the moving restorative connections pilgrims made and illuminates how the ancestral house as a spiritual place offers an opening to a wellspring of humanity in sites that might otherwise be defined solely by tragic loss as an exploration of the powerful links between memory and place house and homeland rupture and continuity these armenian stories reflect the resilience of diaspora in the face of the savage reaches of trauma separation and exile in ways that each of us whatever our history can recognize A House in the Woods 2011-11-08 the modern house reflects upon the complicated relationship architecture has with the terms modernist modernism and modern specifically in relation to the potent concept of the home reflecting in part the narrative of how some of the most important examples of modern houses were commissioned and built in the uk these special examples of british modernism include such progressive experiments on communal urban living as london s isokon building completed in 1934 by eminent architect wells coates and berthold lubetkin s highpoint which is today considered one of the most prominent examples of the early international style compared with these urban enormities are private houses such as the laslett house in cambridge 1958 by the architect trevor dannatt or the winter house designed by john winter as his own residence included are an extended introductory essay by acclaimed architectural journalist jonathan bell former architecture editor for wallpaper and contributing editor at blueprint and projects such as those designed by renowned architect carl turner responsible for the low energy slip house a cantilevered sculptural abode of translucent glass steel and concrete with images of yet to be seen interiors and restorations the modern house illuminates the convergent characteristics of functionalism truth to materials flowing space and natural light within the modern home as a space for living
