Dare to Pair 2014-10-14 shortlisted for the edward stanford adventure travel book of the year on 1 april 2011 rower and adventurer sarah outen set off in her kayak from tower bridge for france her aim was simple to circle the globe entirely under her own steam cycling kayaking and rowing across europe asia the pacific north america the atlantic and eventually home a year later sarah was plucked from the pacific ocean amid tropical storm mawar her boat broken her spirit even more so but that wasn t the end despite ill health and depression giving up was not an option so sarah set off once more to finish what she had started becoming the first woman to row solo from japan to alaska as well as the first woman to row the mid pacific from west to east she kayaked the treacherous aleutian chain and cycled north america before setting out on the atlantic despite the risk of another row ending storm dare to do is more than an adventure story it is a story of the kindness of strangers and the spirit of travel a story of the raw power of nature of finding love in unexpected places and of discovering your inner strength it is about trying and failing and trying again and about how even when all seems lost you can find yourself

Dare to Think Purple 2021-03 in her 1 nyt bestsellers brené brown taught us what it means to dare greatly rise strong and brave the wilderness now based on new research conducted with leaders change makers and culture shifters she s showing us how to put those ideas into practice so we can step up and lead leadership is not about titles status and power over people leaders are people who hold themselves accountable for recognising the potential in people and ideas and developing that potential this is a book for everyone who is ready to choose courage over comfort make a difference and lead when we dare to lead we don t pretend to have the right answers we stay curious and ask the right questions we don t see power as finite and hoard it we know that power becomes infinite when we share it and work to align authority and accountability we don t avoid difficult conversations and situations we lean into the vulnerability that s necessary to do good work but daring leadership in a culture that s defined by scarcity fear and uncertainty requires building courage skills which are uniquely human the irony is that we re choosing not to invest in developing the hearts and minds of leaders at the same time we re scrambling to figure out what we have to offer that machines can t do better and faster what can we do better empathy connection and courage to start brené brown spent the past two decades researching the emotions that give meaning to our lives over the past seven years she found that leaders in organisations ranging from small entrepreneurial start ups and family owned businesses to non profits civic organisations and fortune 50 companies are asking the same questions how do you cultivate braver more daring leaders and how do you embed the value of courage in your culture dare to lead answers these questions and gives us actionable strategies and real examples from her new research based courage building programme brené writes one of the most important findings of my career is that courage can be taught developed and measured courage is a collection of four skill sets supported by twenty eight behaviours all it requires is a commitment to doing bold work having tough conversations and showing up with our whole hearts easy no choosing courage over comfort is not easy worth it always we want to be brave with our lives and work it s why we re here
